White Trash Saint by REALM

Find out something new everyday

Finally found I have something to say

Sit back white collar, grin ,grin, grin

Yet to shed your scaly skin

There is little, yeah, little you can do

Except ignore me in front of you

Then I'll haunt your dreams and family

Hear your daughters screaming [run daddy].....yeah

Chorus

You drink such beautiful wine

It is so much better than mine...yeah

Live your life of love with no regrets

But to me you'll pay all your debts

Republican eye mounted in your head

Wish it was peep show trash instead

Got a life for free, don't you complain

Your daddy whipped, mom showed restraint

Negative oak desk, leather lounge chair

Filth dripping out from your evil pilot stare

It leaks on out, out on your world

Coat hanger killing daddy's little girl.....yeah

Chorus

What did you expect from me

Besides my purest hate

What did you think I'd do

Bow to you the White Trash Saint?

I can make my own white trash

I know how and it'd be fun too

But I have the self respect

Not to become a white trash saint

LIKE YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
