You're sinking under my control? Cheated on everything such a display, it burns and falls, 22 more enemies.
This truth destroyed by trust we placed in one another.
As time grows short we dance around the lies? Cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry.
Cry, cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry. You're sinking? Take from me everything that means something to me.
So trivial to you but I'll persecute you.
Never look me in the eyes, first one to criticize,
And then the world it stops to watch you change your mind? Cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry.
Cry, cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry.
You're sinking under my control.
Dance around the lies? Cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry.
Cry, cry, cry unto God, He won't listen.
He won't even respond to you.
Cry, cry for yourself, your, your misery.
You're so sorry.
You're sinking, you're sinking,
You're sinking, you're sinking under my control.
Sink so deep in your own misery.
You're so sorry.
You're sinking down.
