

Rearview Mirror "Thank You"

Visit "Thank You" on MotoLyrics.com

Show me through your own life.
Don't repeat anything.
Don't need to hear it twice.
Never needed to be told.
Never needed to be trained.
Everything that I know I've learned from your mistakes.
So thank you for all the times that you messed up, Because now I don't have to? So free to drift along with the wind,
Because I know what to watch out for.
I'm so free to look at myself on the in, inside.
I understand what it means now.
I'm so free to drift along with the wind,
Because I know what I'm watching for? One time, take a look at yourself, discover humility...
So free to drift along with the wind,
Because I know what to watch out for.
I'm so free to look at myself on the in, inside.
I understand what it means now? Hope you realize that you're worse off than before.
No one sees your accomplishments,
'cause they forgot about them already? So free to drift
along with the wind,
Because I know what to watch out for.
I'm so free to look at myself on the in, inside.
I understand what it means now.
So free to drift along with the wind,
Because I know what I'm watching for.
So free to look at myself on the in, inside.
I understand, understand what it means.
