(jerry leiber, mike stoller)

Well I can wash out forty four pairs of socks
And have em on the line
You know I can starch and iron two dozen shirts Fore you can count from one to nine
I can slip up a great big dip up of lard from a drippings can Throw it in the skillet, do my shopping, and be back before it melts in
The Pan

Chorus:
Cause Im a woman
W-o-m-a-n
Let me tell ya again
Im a woman
W-o-m-a-n

Well I can rub and scrub till this house shines just like a dime
Feed the baby
Grease the car
Powder my nose at the same time

You know I can get all dressed up
Go out swinging with the m-a-n
Jump in bed at five Sleep till 6
And start all over again

Repeat chorus

Well now if you come to me sick you know that Im gonna make you well
And if you come to me all hexed up you know Im gonna break the spell
And if you come to me hungry, you know
Ill feed ya full of my grits
And if it's loving you want, I can kiss you and give you the shivering

Fits

Repeat chorus
(Ill say it again)

Well, I got a twenty dollar gold fee that says there's nothing that i
Cant do
Well I can make a dress out of feeding sacks and I can make a man out
Of you

Repeat chorus

Im a woman
Im a woman
Im a woman
Yeah Im a woman
