I sent you roses, I warned you I would Do all that I could to show you the way that I feel Please don't say I'm wastin' my time
I've got nothin' but time, so I'll do all that I can
To catch that ghost of a chance

The sunlight, the moonlight are beyond my control
And there are stars in the heavens that I'll never hold
But if dreams give you power, then I'm strong enough
To offer my heart and never give up
Till you love me, till you love me

I looked in your eyes, so bright and so blue
And that's when I knew that you could be mine
If good things come to those who will wait
Well, I guess I can wait if that's what I have to do
Oh, it's worth it for you

The sunlight, the moonlight are beyond my control
And there are stars in the heavens that I'll never hold
But if dreams give you power, well, then I'm strong enough
To offer my heart and never give up
Till you love me, till you love me

Oh, the sunlight, the moonlight are beyond my control
And there are stars in the heavens, oh, that I'll never hold
To offer my heart, I will never give up
Till you love me, till you love me, till you love me
