I caught you smiling at me again
Out of the corner of my eye
It isn't easy when I have to pretend
That you're just another guy
I can't let anyone ever know
I can't let my feelings show

Cuz you're the one
I dream about
When I fall asleep at night
And you're the one
I think about
When he turns out the light
Now it's so hard to live without
Your love to hold me tight
How I wish that he was you tonight

Whenever you are close to me
My heart just won't be still
I hope that no one else can see
The way you make me feel
If only I didn't have to hide
All this love that I hold inside

Cuz you're the one I dream about....
