The greastest man I never knew lived just down the hall and every day we said hello but never touched at all he was in his paper
I was in my room
How was I to know he thought I hung the moon

The greatest man I never knew came home late every night he never had to much to say to much was on his mind I never really knew him oh and now it seems so sad Everything he gave to us took all he had.

then the days turned into years and the memories to black and white he grew cold like an old winter wind blowin across my life the greastest words i never heard I guess i'll never hear the man i thought could never die has been dead almost a year he was good at business but there was business left to do

guess he thought i knew
