3 o'clock in the mornin' when the telephone started ringin'
I had a feelin' it wouldd be you
I'd didn't want to take it but I let my imagination think Of some kind of trouble you gotten into
And I just had to answer n you had to stop cryin'
And I, I tried to fight it
But I thought if I didn't listen to you
That I wouldn't be much of a friend
I let you come over n cry on my shoulder
For the hundredth time over again
And all those old emotions came rainin' out of the room
Just when I thought I'd stopped lovin' you

You got a way of knowin' when I'm on the edge of givin' in
And how to use those beautiful eyes
So if one day you're askin' me, if I ever thought that maybe
We outta give it one more try?
And I just had to answer n you, you had to start smilin'
And I thought about lyin'
But I thought if I wasn't honest with you
That I wouldn't be much of a friend
I let you come over n cry on my shoulder
For the hundredth time over again
And all those old emotions came rainin' out of the room
Just when I thought I'd stopped lovin' you

Oh I hate you for makin' me crazy
So why is it that I..
I keep on takin' you right back baby?
But I thought if I didn't listen to you
That I wouldn't be much of a friend
I let you come over n cry on my shoulder
For the hundredth time over again
And all those old emotions came rainin' out of the room
Just when I thought I'd stopped lovin' you
Just when I thought I'd stopped lovin' you

You take two steps down the highway
But you come runnin' back

What am I supposed to do?
What am I supposed to do?
What am I supposed to do with that?
Wrap my arms around you!
yeah eh yeah
