Thousands of people live in this town and i had to run into him when i saw him there on that busy street those feelings came back again there was nowhere to run and nowhere to hide he walked up to me looked in my eyes and still the world stood still i couldn't move and all i could feel was the aching in my heart saying i love him still he said how have you been? its great to see you again, your really sad your eyes i said i can't complain oh i'm doin' fine, we talked about old times, and all we've went through thats when he hugged me and said i miss you

i could move and all i could feel was this acheing in my heart saying i loved him still thats when she walked up to him, he said this is my wife i gave my best smile but i was dieing inside he said we gotta go now its getting late it was so good to see you and as they walked away

was this acheing in my heart saying i love him still
