Congratulations Batman
You're the game of the year
And they all sing your praises Batman You're the man of the hour Even Yahtzee couldn't find enough to spank your bat-behind

But do you want to know, what it is that I like about you?
If you care to know what it is that I like about you,
it's this
I didn't have to kill anyone
No I didn't have to kill anyone
No blood on your hands this time my girl

So a word of praise for your gadgets and of course the outfit

I guess the story's not too desperate
And for your enemies I'm affectionate

But do you want to know, what it is that I like about
you?
If you care to know what it is that I like about you,
it's this
I didn't have to kill anyone
No I didn't have to kill anyone

Cause how could we not, love your good heart
