Here at last a hardcore game on the wii that's nasty
Stylized violence that we call comedy
Like itchy and scratchy, like tom and jerry.â€”
I just stabbed a guy through the eye with a road sign Pulled out his heart with my bare hands, do i feel alright?â€”

No I feel dirty, there's really something quite unnerving
About all the latent pervy in the disturbing commentary.

You're trying way too hard
Like a disillusioned nerd
Who thinks chainsaws and swear words will make you

The coolest kid in school

It's far too short and the weapons are far too few
And I have to redo the whole level
So i give you a headbutt with the nunchukâ€”

I feel giddy, visually it gets really busy
And my heart feels dizzy in this sadistic comic book

You're trying way too hard
Like a disillusioned nerd
Who thinks chainsaws and swear words will make you
The coolest kid in school
