(Törnqvist/Svenre)

There was times I could have used a leash to pull you down on your knees

Have you doing everything right doing it like the way I'd like

But just as long as you walk beside me and keep my pace

If your head's turned away or I can see your face

I don't care just as long as you keep quite near

If I reach out to touch you I want you to be there

I'd do the Queen of Sheba without any shame or guilt

But I've grown tired of this castle I built

Now I'd rather leave these quite embarrassing schemes

leave and take you home with me

'Cause just as long as you walk beside me and keep my
pace

If your head's turned away or I can see your face

I don't care just as long as you keep quite near

I can't do this anymore

I can't play this game and watch you go

Just as long as you walk beside me and keep my pace

If your head's turned away or I can see your face

I don't care just as long as you keep quite near
