It's so magical
How simple it can be
For this love
For this sweetest love

It's so simple
And so easy when you know
Who you love
Who you really love

Is it this real or is it a game?
It's only love
But everything has changed

Is it love? It is love!
This is love and you can't break it
It is love only love
This is love and you can't mistake it
This is love

It's so simple that there's nothing to explain
In this love
What else can I say?

I don't know how long
A love like this can last
But it feels Like you're here to stay

Is this real or is it a game?
It's only love but everything has changed

Is it love? It is love!
This is love and you can't break it
It is love only love
This is love and you can't mistake it
Is it love? It is love!
This is love you can't break it
It is love only love
This is love you can't mistake it
This is love

Is it love? It is love!
This is love and you can't break it (Love you can't break it)
It is love only love
This is love and you can't mistake it (Can't mistake it)
Is it love? It is love! (Yes this is love)
This is love you can't break it (Love you can't break it)
It is love only love (Yes this is love)
This is love you can't mistake it (Can't mistake it)
This is love
