First riff of our summer,
Let our hearts run parallel,
So many things to tell you,
That our hearts can't even see,
Feel the chords, these changes,
Burrow up inside,
Take comfort in your reflection
Tell me what you'll find

Inside your heart,
Are the words that you'll forever mean,
Can't shake this off,
Or stand against the test of time

First riff of our summer,
Let our hearts run parallel,
So many things to tell you,
That our hearts can't even see,
Feel the chords, these changes,
Burrow up inside,
Take comfort in your reflection
Tell me what you'll find

Inside your heart,
Are the words that you'll forever mean,
Can't shake this off,
Or stand against the test of time

Inside your heart,
Are the words that you'll forever mean,
Can't shake this off because,
You know that I'll be waiting there.
