The landing gear did not come down,
I feathered the props as I hit the ground,
I never thought I'd die this young,
Though it looks like my time is done.

I hear the sirens start to scream,
This all felt like a violent dream,
I never thought I'd see this day,
Take back the words that I didn't say.

If you could see the look in my eyes,
Like a thousand mothers that cried,
If I could only see this day through,
I'd spend a thousand lifetimes with you,

With you...

The landing gear did not come down,
I saw his plane as it hit the ground,
I saw it slide to it's resting place,
I saw the look on his mothers face,
These are the days that we remember,
For all the lives that we surrender.

I miss you so much...

If you could see the look in my eyes,
Like a thousand mothers that cried,
If I could only see this day through,
I'd spend a thousand lifetimes with you,

With you...

And now I'm gone,
And now I'm gone,
Just move along you'll make it through,

You'll make it through.

And now I'm gone,
And now I'm gone,
Just move along you'll make it through,

You'll make it through.
