I followed her home,
On that fateful night,
I was feeling divine,
The stars shine out bright,
I sat outside her house,
In that old oak tree,
I see inside her window,
But she dosen't know about me.

Coz she's the only one,
We'll never go wrong,
We'll always be fine,
She'll always be mine.

My cameras only got,
17 times zoom,
But that's all I need,
To see inside her room,
If I had any friends,
I'd let them all in,
On my little secret,
Of my hiding place.

Coz she's the only one,
We'll never go wrong,
We'll always be fine,
She'll always be mine.

She's the only one,
We'll never go wrong,
We'll always be fine,
She'll always be mine.
