You know you need me
You know you care
But you choose to deny it
It's like you are ashamed
Of what people will say
Who cares?

So what if you like me
So what if you want me
I like you too
I want you too
Love me, want me
That's all I need

Ashamed of me
That's not love
I love you
Above all others
You should love me too

So what if you like me
So what if you want me
I like you too
I want you too
Love me, want me
That's all I need
That's all I need
I love you
