No one knows me like i know me
No one knows you like you know you
So what can you say to make me feel better
Just what can be said, i've heard it all before

Come inside now let's wait out the weather
The snow on the window seems to slow you down
So you hold to the healing is the bitter man still there
Will the vicious circle spin us round again

So what can you say to make me feel better
Just what can be said i've heard it all before
Pass in the stairway, never read the letter
Why get out of bed, no one's at the door

You have this way
Just what can i say
To make your day

And when it rears a head and it hurts inside
What can a fool provide, show his selfish side
On into what could become, a mutual feeling
And on this day i'm sure that pride will rest

No one knows me like i know me
No one knows you like you know you

So what can you say to make me feel better
Just what can be said i've heard it all before
Pass in the stairway, i never read the letter
Why get out of bed no one's at the door

You have this way
Just what can i say
To make your day
