

Record Life "Got Me Good"

Visit "Got Me Good" on MotoLyrics.com

Got Me Good

It's not working, but I wish it would.

She don't care about the things she should.

I don't know how she got me, but I know she got me good.

She's waking me up, but I'm waking up slowly.

I'm talking her up, but I still sound lonely.

If only she could show me

The sadness that she shakes

When she bends until she breaks.

Just hear me when I say (that)

You, whenever you fall,

Wherever you go,

I'll catch you (oh).

I'll pick you up and carry you home.

She's bright eyed, with a brilliant smile.

She's opening up, but it could take awhile.

I'd walk a hundred miles of wrong just to try and make it right.

I wondered at first, but now I know I'm sure

That I'm in every single line, and every single word

Of every song she's ever heard.

She's falling in love with the way

That I'm taking her through the day.

She hears me when I say (that)

You, whenever you fall,

Wherever you go,

I'll catch you (oh).

I'll pick you up and carry you home.

I'll be the nights that give you sleep,

I'll be the days that lie between.

I'll be the world beneath your feet

If you let me.

I'll be the only love you'll need

If you let me.

