I am the manhood in reincarnation, I am tough like a true marine I beat my lovers to show my strength, I believe in discipline
I have a little tip for you; become a man and you will see
It truly is the only way to be sharp and perfect just like me
We are heroes, we're the prime of manhood
I just want a girlfriend, I don't need no wife
A wife will nag and fix terrible meals
While a girlfriend is quiet and fulfills my needs I will teach you pain and pleasure, you will learn how to obey
It's all in order all in place we men shall rule the human race
It's written in the law of god, I am strong and you are weak
So listen to your masters, just listen to your man
If you read the book of anger you will learn our destiny
The rule by fear from above, it's all so clear
The face of authority lies inside your bed tonight
Can you see it in his eyes; centuries of rape and lies
