[M. Teske]

I knew you for so long
As a brother in arms
Should have seen it before
But all warnings have failed
I hear echos from afar
Inside my head
Is it mistrust?
My heart feels betrayed

Is it gold you're after?
What's a judas kiss?
Or the fate of generations?
Follow what's deep inside

Turn my wine to water
Riddles to be solved
Hidden treasures of the past
Reveals the mystery - Is it gold?

What's the draw of the cards?
To possess all senses
What's your El Dorado?
Where's your desert storm?

With a tunnel vision view
This pain will remain
Exploring yourself
And fall into flames

Is it gold you're after?
What's a judas kiss?
Or the fate of generations?
Follow what's deep inside
Turn my wine to water
Riddles to be solved
Hidden treasures of the past
Reveals the mystery - Is it gold?
