(Jim Anglin)

Hello number one, goodbye lonesome time
You never released my heart or treat my mind
First I've tried to forget you, decided it couldn't be done
We're back again where we belong, hello number one.

We left back friends gossip separate us for awhile
I don't deserve love like yours but darling I'll try
We're not the first or last, gossip breaks many plans
We won't hurt anymore facing life hand in hand.

Hello umber one, goodbye lonesome time
You never released my heart or treat my mind
First I've tried to forget you, decided it couldn't be
done
We're back again where we belong, hello number one.

We're back again where we belong, hello number one...
