Just a mem'ry of the love I left behind
I'm a fool seems I lose everytime
For the future that I once held in my arms
Is fading fast now the loneliness will come.

You can cheat
But I'll still care about you
But if you cheat you'll hurt your love
Then you'll be blue.

Just a mem'ry of the love I left behind
I'm a fool seems I lose everytime
For the future that I once held in my arms
Is fading fast now the loneliness will come.

You can cheat
But I'll still care about you
But if you cheat you'll hurt your love
Then you'll be blue.

Just a mem'ry of the love I left behind
I'm a fool seems I lose everytime
For the future that I once held in my arms
Is fading fast now the loneliness will come...
