the words that come right out of your mouth they're all just bullshit none of its truth you lie again, again and again because you can't stop drinking every night party all day and all night long your life's a bottle and your trapped inside

[Chorus]

drink, drink, drink it up
swallow it all down
can't, can't, get enough
you might as well drown fight, fight, fight any one in site the alcohol makes you fight all night that look in your eyes makes me want to die your probably going to kill someone before this sick night is all over

[Chorus]

in the liquor that has taken over you there's nothing for me too fucking do to stop you from ruining our lives that drunk look is always in your eyes its never ever going to go away in your eyes all the time it will stay

[Chorus]

there's nothing for me too fucking do
