Dear friend,
can i ask you a question tonight?
pull the chord from the phone it takes time, take a breath, talk things through, you'll be fine.

Since last year
you've left me so completely unclear.
tear your heart off the walls, you've had me for so long, but i'm never enough, too sincere, but i'll still be waiting for you here.
You keep saying no-o-o to your heart, you're waking up to all their lies,
you say you've seen it all,
but you can't see
what they're doing to you right now.

Winding down, looking out how misprotectious???? place in the chords,
find out how much you miss him,
contemplating suicide, keep hanging on those other guys you'll soon find out about the lies they fed you
You keep saying no-o-o to your heart,
you're waking up to all their lies,
you say you've seen it all,
but you can't see
what they're doing to you right now.

If you love me, i'm still waiting for you here (x6)
