We said our weekly "hello" to each other and just kept walking by
We never seem to get this timing right
Maybe we can meet up for lunch tomorrow
Or just sit down for a cup of coffee in the morning
Oh I'm not trying to be slick or smooth here, no
I just want a friendship, more than a pass and go
We walk endlessly around on these sidewalks
Across the streets, in and out of these buildings, and I don't know about you but I'm getting awfully tired of Walking around on the same ground
I say we pack our bags up and get so far away Let's forget these cities, these streets and all these lights
Let's forget they existed and move on with our lives
Let's go!
