Down the street you can hear her scream You're a disgrace as she slams the door in his drunken face And now he stands outside and all the neighbors start to gossip and drool He cries oh girl you must be mad What happened to the sweet love you and me had Against the door he leans and start a scene and his tears fall and burn the garden green And so castles made of sand fall in the sea
eventually
A little Indian brave who before he was ten played wargames in the woods with his Indian friends And he built a dream that when he grew up he would be a fearless warrior Indian chief Many moons past and more the dream grew strong until tomorrow he would sing his first war song and fight his first battle but something went wrong surprise attack killed him in his sleep that night
And so castles made of sand
fall in the sea
eventually
There was a young girl whose heart was a frown
'cause she was crippled for life and she couldn't speak a sound and she wished and prayed she could stop livin' so she decide to die She drew her wheelchair to the edge of the shore and to her legs she smiled You won't hurt me no more But then a sight she'd never seen made her jump and say Look a golden winged ship is passing my way
And it really didn't have to stop It just kept on going
And so castles made of sand
slips into the sea
eventually
