I can see the fire in your eyes
When you look at me it burns so bright
Once again we're going through a hard time
Yeah we're both angry lets stop this fight

Sometimes all I need
Is to hear the truth
An Apology is all I need from you
I hate to be the one
That's always giving in
What more do I need...
Nothing
Just tell me the truth

Now you're packing up
It's your time
And you're leaving the whole world behind
So you're giving up
Is this the end?
Everything is lost
So long my friend
