So I've gone away
Graduation day
Tears drop from your eyes
Baby please don't cry

I'll be back again
This is not the end
All the times we share
I promise I'll still be there

So I let you down
For not being around
Even though I'm gone
I was there all along

Time is changing
But I'm still waiting
For all this to end
Please believe me
Trust me baby
I love you more than everything
Than anything at all

So I'm gone away
I'll be back someday
Wipe the tears from your eyes
Baby you'll survive
