love hurts, love scares; it wounds or is'it just a lie ?
made to make you blue instead of contentment so treat your love with care to be one part to share your feelings in your heart sadness, joy, despair but does anybody care ?
it's like a flame that burns you from the inside out love is like a cloud to hold a lot of rain but don't forget the pain which is definitely there when it all comes down then love shows it's face indifference of these days disillusion & disgrace
in despite of my hate, i wouldn't ask you
is this all conspiracy ?
my mind is out of control, it's hard to trust you my anger is just self-defense for free, for free
comedies of charity
the pain you get is all for free
