Long veils of black smoke drifting in Turn off the lights - a silent scream
What's the point now doing things joining this lightless atmosphere?
It's the night's fault you disappeared in this non-reacting steam?
Faded forever - the night's fault? Glorified Servant .-
condemned to smile
Turn the other cheek to the condescension
Wasn't it a proof that his ambition in life had Shrunk to a vision of himself?
Can't wait for this unbending force of your inner time bomb...
Too many skills - contest your dream
They raised his hope some years ago
As reality closed in Your self-deceit? It may occur to overcome your rage
An unbending force - your self deceit
Glorified Servant .- condemned to smile
Turn the other cheek to the condescension
Wasn't it a proof that his ambition in life had Shrunk to a vision of himself?
And I can't taste the question on the tip of your tongue
Try to file and you will swallow a leech called bribery!
