delivering lectures - normally not my way of expressing my opinion but living in a country where innocent human beings have been terrorized in such a coward way forces me to start to react police keeps on punishing car drivers for breaking the speed limits or cutting of immigrants from our sacred mothercountry let 'em bomb your "so-called-protection" never meant anything to me
and i thought you swear on humanity so use your ability to keep on righteousness you receive your salary without success ? i wrote these lyrics short before the man was caught by the police by chance now he's arrested but will he get his punishment ?
or maybe he can convince the lawyers that he has been insane in his brain then he would never see a prison cell another story of austrian glory but i don't want to think about it
me
and i thought you swear on humanity
so use your ability to keep on righteousness by the way, kiss my ass
