These nights are long and cold
Take me by the hand
Let's go walking through the snow

The makeup's running down your face
And it's safe to say
That you've lost your glare

All the things i should not say
When the lights go dim
And i lead you on

These nights are long and cold
Take me by the hand
Let's go walking through the snow

You're eyes they won't save me
I know you're far away
Let's just wish upon a star

A star

It's hard to say we're moving on
Making out on my roof
All night long

I miss the way you always smile
And your eyes so deep
Full of memories

These nights are long and cold
Take me by the hand
Let's go walking through the snow

You're eyes they won't save me
I know you're far away
Let's just wish upon a star

Why do i fall for everything

Just ask as i go
And your suffering

And the seasons change
And you lost a friend
And i hope you know
That the story goes
There i go on and
There i go on and on
