Baby it's hard to try
When you are never there
Now you complain to your daddy and I
Start screamin' heaven ain't (screamin' heaven ain't)
Near this deserted place
Called interseason
When you were young

You hate this old ache
Just as you walked out of the intersection
You told the all the people
When you were young...

In the ice age
Cause in that time, you told the people
When you were young
You sat there where you hated the boys who joked
To the girls that hated sayin'
When you were young.

I also imagined when you were young,
The kids said you walked like a woman
When they all thought the same thing as me
When you were young
Got the you otte?
Baby we've got the shotties
Cause otta tell the men
When you were young.

It's a racing gentlemen
In the gentlemen type incredible men
That you imagined
When you were young.

In the ice age
Cause in that time, you told the people
When you were young
You sat there where you hated the boys who joked
To the girls who hated sayin'
When you were young.

I'm in that hurtful break

In a human's heart
When you were young
You could heal me like a princess
In a castle but, you imagined that
When you were young.

It's a racing gentlemen
In the gentlemen type incredible men
That you imagined
When you were young.

When you were young
When you were young
Cause when you were young
When you were young
In the last gig
They told me for the last time,
When you were young.
