

Red Tide "Deviation"

Everything that I wanted
Just opened for me
Living out a dream
Made with your total honesty
More and more times
I spent it all with you
And I come to realize
That this is truth...

Deviate you run from me
Break the dream you helped me see
Sever ties created together
Build the lie

"The truth will set you free"

Honesty is buried under dirt of your repression
Bonds build by truth are broken by your deviation
Depart from the light into darkness of confusion
Despair the shooting pain as I hit your wall of rejection

Where is all that's true - What I gave to you

[Solo: Ian]

Behind your shelter is something you cannot take
A truth that is so absolute it will never break
Reflections of each other so strong we both feel
That nothing can ever destroy something so real

[Solo: Foley]

[Solo: Wu]

So now I ask for you to see. The truth in you that's inside me.
And just like me you will find. Something so strong it will never die

It will not die
