It poured out of my veins
You watched it hit the floor
And you speak of truth [x2]
You don't know of truth [x2]

You saw my life drain out of me
Every drop that once bled for you
I'm trying to shut it off to stop my heart
But you rip more and more wounds

I never wanted to believe
I saw only my own dream
The fragile world you built for me
Shattered in my agony [x2]

[Solo: Wu]

Stop it all
(You stopped it all for me)

In this end
You made
Now I know you
But I don't know
Who I knew
I thought I understood what you saw
And everything that we were to do

But this is not the end
This is not my end
