

Red Umbrella "Storm Warning"

Visit "Storm Warning" on MotoLyrics.com

If you're cold outside and your tears you cannot hide Please consider my letter an invitation out of this weather
Won't you change your mind just a little bit at a time?
Storm warning outside
If you believe you cannot hide, I'll be waiting right here
inside for your heart
You've been waiting long outside with no song?
Won't you change your mind just a little bit at a time?
Storm Warning outside
If you believe you cannot hide, I'll be waiting right here
inside for your heart
Storm warning outside
If you believe you cannot hide, I'll be waiting right here
inside
If love is blind then faith is how we see through the rain tonight
