Decision weighing on me
Judgement clouding my mind
Just look at what you've started now
How could we understand?

I don't ask why, I don't ask what it means
It may not be as crazy as it seems
A line is drawn, a line is crossed
Are we gonna dig another grave?

The systematic breakdown
A system addicted
We fail to change ourselves, we pour
The salt to feel the burn

I don't ask why, I don't ask what it means
It may not be as crazy as it seems
A line is drawn, a line is crossed
Are we gonna dig another grave?

Bury the secrets
Extinguish the life
And you know why
