You walked into my room, a lover from the past
A lifetime since I looked into your eye-eyes You held me like one holds onto a dream that has gone bad
Ain't it scary how so many dreams run dry You've travelled round the world two times since you've left me Fell in love three times, grown restless another four-our But through the haze of love and pain
You say you wa-anna feel young again
Ain't it funny how that happens when you get older Woh-oh when you get o-older
And you don't know-ow me anymore, I've changed
The innocence you found di-isappeared when you went away-ay-hay
And I don't fall in love that quickly like I used to do The passion still explodes, bou-ound by a lo-o-onger
fu-use
You're livin' with a rock 'n' roll musician off the coast
I hope he makes it, walk alone at ni-ight just to get away
He waits for you in bed and when it don't feel good you learn to fake it
I can see you lyin' silent in your ra-age, woh-oh in silent rage
And you don't know-ow me anymore, I've changed
The innocence you found di-isappeared when you went away-ay-hay
And I don't fall in love that quickly like I used to do-oo
The passion still explodes, bou-ound by a lo-o-onger
fu-use
Bou-ound by a lo-o-onger fu-use (I don't fall in love)
Bou-ound by a lo-o-onger fu-use (I don't fall in love)
(I don't fall in love)
