Don't get out much these days
My friends call that don't know what to say I can't believe it's been a year
There's still a lot of you around here...

Not much has changed
But everything feels so different now
I can't explain
How you're gone
You feels so near
There's still a lot of you around here

There's still too much emotion
weighing my heart down
Too many words unspoken
I wish I could tell you now
A thousand little moments
OF you and me that I hold dear
They're all that pull me through There's still a lot of you..
around here...

I heard that song
the one you love Driving late last night
I turned it up
And sang along through my tears
Still a lot of you around here..

There's still too much emotion
Weighing my heart down
Too many words unspoken
I wish I could tell you now
I wish I could tell you now
There's a thousand little moments of you and me I hold dear
They're all that pull me through
There's still a lot of you

around here...

still a lot of you...
around here...
