Riding the tram home at night feeling my city's heartbeat / Helsinki shitty park streets / Urban safari / It's my city, my life, my day, my night / my wrongs, my rights, my way, my fight / I spot a couple members a the
pirinisti committee / living shitty, they stay gritty, it ain't pretty / Eyes lazy looking down at the main streets / Neon lights that remind me of the Eighties / better believe that, packing a tree sack / I jump into Jump
Inn for a little something, something / I need that / Couple of Coronas, I stop when a wanna / rocking a boner but leave alone / I need to stop by the store / to get something to eat too, now Select a be cool, get gone, get home / Put in a movie to sleep to / That's normally a normal day the way RE
do / My style original, but me common people

It's the soundtrack of LIFE
Now here we GO
'Bout to take you HIGH
If you feeling LOW
Now it's about that TIME
That I let you KNOW
Now hear me FLOW
Now here we GO

My man Albertman told me you gotta / practice a lot to / make you rapping
hotter or cats a knock you / Speaking a love ain't nothing deeper than blood
/ My flowing is going out to you know you be in the pub / Me I'm still the same slob / Still no day job and debts gonna take a while / until I paid
mine / But I'm coping I'm hoping my folk noticed my love's never frozen /

Although this game's ever postponing in slow-motion / I grew up in the middle a two brothers / my true brothers / We do whatever for each other /
Each summer my city wakes up from deep slumber / Everywhere you look there's ass and titties, it's mad pretty / Fat or skinny I'll ask any / really
there's mad plenty / Saying Finnish chicks isn't the shit? / Listen that's blasphemy / you can ask anybody who knows me, the RE a proceed / Now this where my home be

It's the soundtrack of LIFE
Now here we GO
'Bout to take you HIGH
If you feeling LOW
Now it's about that TIME
That I let you KNOW
Now hear me FLOW
Now here we GO

Haven't you heard of this? I'm a journalist / Personal tragedy, ain't scared
of it, I verbally murder it / Eternally learning, working my way higher / My fire burning / Live for the moment 'cos tomorrow's not certain / Family be my battery / matter don't really matter to me / This cat a be down to earth
like gravity / Academy failed grabbing me / my attention span a be radically too short my thoughts on female anatomy / Concentrating on making MCs mad at me / Producing rapping casualties, practicing nasty assophy / Cat's in the back a be wilding out massively/ The grass be greener at home than across
the map....Naturally

It's the soundtrack of LIFE
Now here we GO
'Bout to take you HIGH
If you feeling LOW
Now it's about that TIME
That I let you KNOW
Now hear me FLOW
Now here we GO
