Looking for a job on the hill the president should but I don't think he will my stepfather's name is bill he's married to my mom and a little white pill chorus:
ah, louise, won't somebody, please
take me away
far from gone, roatan out on the caribbean she had all the colors of the rainbow in her hair we all wanted to kiss her so I took the dare then they tied all the cans to the back of our wagon in the end it was just our love that was draggin'
chorus:
far from here where I disappeared from your eyes a long time ago bridge: chances are i guess worth the taking you follow your heart though it keeps on breaking and in the light of dawn soon I'll be gone like a song in your thoughts all alone while you're sleeping i was living life on my own till I got a call took the long ride home to take care of the ones who took care of me in my highly dysfunctional family stripped of his clothes cursing the cancer god's only got so many prayers he can answer

Â'cause with millions of eyes and millions of souls somebodyÂ's bound to be left in the cold

Chorus:

ah, louise, wonÂ't you help me please
far from now wonÂ't you show me how to get on with the rest of my days
