"Rockheart"

I need you and you need me,
Is this the way we want it to be?
We tried to hard, it seems I have failed
All I can think, baby it's you
I want you right here, I'm feeling so blue
What went wrong did I try too hard?

Your smile is gone, Your words has turned into lies,
There's empty gaze in your eyes

Touch me, hold me, let me feel you like you used to be,
Wake me, up from this bad dream
Praying, begging, for you to give on change to me,
Crying, longing for your love

Then so near, now so far
Your smiling eyes, now cold as ice
Our loving kiss has turned into broken heart.
What is the reason you want me to stay
You're playing your games and I have to pay
Let me show how deep is my love
