So you think that the city
Is the place
Where you want to be

Iâ€™m glad that you found me
Iâ€™ve got rooms
For you to be

All the times you need to pray
Rooms for you to rest
All the times you need to stay
What a lovely day

Raskolnikov was a good boy
Imagination
Tore him down apart
He would have loved Berlin
Â“Zimmer! Zimmer!
For Us to beÂ”

All the times you need to pray
Rooms for you to rest
All the times you need to stay
What a lovely day

All the times you need to stay
What a lovely day
I want you to stay
You to stay
You to stay
What a lovely day
