We could write our names here in the mud
No one's around to see them
We could hang our shoes here in a tree
No one's around to steal them
I could give you a star
You could give me one too
And that way we'd be even
And I could sing a song way out of tune
And not care a bit about it
We could both wear cowboy hats
And pretend that we could speak Italian
I could eat some gum
And make my breath so minty fresh
To kiss you
Your breath will smell like wine
I like that a lot
Especially when I kiss you
And I could hit my funny bone really hard
And you could call me a sweetheart

And who ever said there's nothing new under the sun
Never thought much about individuals
But he's dead anyway

Let's go down together
Down together

Let's go down together
Down together
Down together

Let's go down together
Down together
Down together

Yeah, let's go . . .

We could all wear ripped up clothes
And pretend that we were Dead Hot Workshop
I could drive a long long way
And not even have the gas to make it back
We could chase our shadows around the lawn

Until we're both exhausted
I could forget the words just one more time
And hope that no one notices

And who ever said there's nothing new under the sun
Never thought much about me

What's good for you is good for me
And what's bad for you is bad for me
What's good for you is good for me
And what's bad for you is bad for me

Cars break and people break down and other things break down too
So lets go down together
Down together
Down together
Together
Lets go down together
Down together
Down together
Together

We could find a speck of dust and scribble down our life stories
