Well these legions of lesions that Ive acquired
Are suggesting the best thing to do is retire
But here comes the dumb thing
Ive got to do something
Or demons of love will descend from above
So Ive let go of the rope yes Ive abandoned all hope
Before this pushing comes to more shoving
Now stay away from Los Angeles
If what you want to find there is loving
Yeah these legions of lesions that weve acquired
Are suggesting the best thing to do is to retire
But heres just a sliver of what they'll deliver
A kick to the head and a shot to the liver
Weve let go of the rope yes weve abandoned all hope
Before this pushing comes to more shoving
Now stay away from Los Angeles
If what you want to find there is loving
Yeah, loving, alright, loving, ok loving
So squash me as flat as a dime
In the middle of my prime
With the gentleness of a biblical dove
So weve let go of the rope yes lets abandoned all hope
Before this pushing comes to more shoving
Now stay away from Los Angeles, mmmhhmmm
Stay away from Los Angeles
Let's stay away from Los Angeles if what you want to find there is loving.
Alright, loving
Loving
Loving
Loving
L-o-v-i-n-g
Loving
