I met Nico few years ago a single drag, a secret flirt she was my light, she was my flame a discreet burn, a screen of smoke she's toxic
i need to have her in the day and more often after dark to taste her in so many ways i feel her heat on my face
she's toxic
nicotine girl, i'm addicted to you nicotine girl, really can't get away from nicotine girl, wasted all my money on nicotine girl, she's toxic to me when I start being sick of her i choke, you turn into ashes my blood can't travel in my veins my heart's beating out of control
she's toxic
i tried to quit a hundred times i feel like i'm digging my hole Nico won't ungrip my poor soul i'll breath her madness forever
she's toxic
