I feel my world on fury
Everything seem scary
What... is wrong with me
I guess there is nobody

Can explain what it is to me
The anger inside me explodes
Like a fucking bomb I blow up
The Vengeance that was never blown

I never though they'll said it
Persuasion to you... it was
My mistakes but they shouldn't interfere our life

So why did you should to believe the words they told you to
Leave our life our loves
That we've built four fucking years.

Why should they do
Persuade your mind
Told you to left me alone
[2x]

[Reff:]
Fuck... I'm getting mad
This shifty life
It's bring me down, calling you out
To... fill my heart
That wide and empty
Need to be stabbed
