In another town don't let me forget
In another town mouths full of regrets
In another town please place finals bets
In another town but I know, I know, I know

In another town my fingers so cold
In another town my soul feels so old
In another town I've sold all my gold
In another town, I know, I know, I know

I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you

In another town they've given me the key
In another town I'm drinking for free
In another town a girl just like me
In another town but I know, I know, I know

In another town the light fills my room
In another town they're painting my moon
In another town I won't see it soon
In another town, I know, I know, I know

I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you

I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you
I love you

I love you
I love
You I love

You I love
