After all, everything'd been said and done
I feel, I feel better now
Come away, lay your hands and rest and close your eyes
Say a prayer for those who've gone.

It's hard, it's hard,
It's hard, it's hard.
To live, to live,
To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,
It's hard, it's hard.
To live, to live,
To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,
It's hard, it's harder
Than it's ever been before.
Things that used to comfort me,
Don't comfort me anymore.

After all, the children being born into
A time of searching for some glory
And the lie's still repeating through the years
Dulce et Decorum Est Pro Patria Mori

It's hard, it's hard,
It's hard, it's hard.
To live, to live,
To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,
It's hard, it's hard.
To live, to live,
To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,
it's hard, it's harder
Than it's ever been before.
Things that used to comfort me,

Don't comfort me anymore.

But you can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you.

You can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you.

Can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you back.

Come on, come on, come on, back.

It's hard, it's hard.

It's hard, it's hard.

To live, to live,

To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,

It's hard, it's hard.

To live, to live,

To live, to live.

It's hard, it's hard,

It's hard, it's harder

Than it's ever been before.

Things that used to comfort me,

Don't comfort me anymore.

But you can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you.

You can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you.

Can't spend your whole life waiting for god,
To kiss you back.

Come on, come on, come on, back.

Kiss you back, kiss you back,

Kiss you back, kiss you back.
